FIFA 17

General Information

- It is a football (Sports) game produced by Aaron McHardy.
- Matthew designed it and released it on 27 September 2016.
- It could be in a single or multiplayer mode.
- The game has eleven players who will play against eleven other players with the aim of winning the game by scoring goals more than the opponent does.

Features Of the Game

- Home and Play options are added to the game and each one of them has its own choices.
- In the Home mode there is the Ultimate Team feature which will allow the user to compete against the other players online in 1v1 situation with squads built by the user himself.
- In the play section you can find The Journey mode with a Career Mode beside it that will allow you to play as a football player or take a manager role in any team you want.

What is in the game?

- It has additional attacking and defensive features with the ability to change the game's level from beginner to advance.
- Plus, you can give instructions to the player to move back and forth in the game.

Disadvantages of the game

- The game does not have the real names for Brazilian Teams as they are almost all fake with random stadiums for other famous teams like Barcelona (a Spanish club).
- There are bugs in the game, especially in online mode, with the lack of innovation.

In Conclusion, the game's pros outweigh its cons and that is why it has gained a lot of players around the world with their positive reflections that shows the success of the game, and it is still until today the most played game in FIFA Series.
